Official county guidance: A site plan and survey show property lines.

The applicant should include the proposed patio dimensions and materials.